Honolulu photo archivist, writer and photographer Allan Seiden has teamed up with www.Printscapes.com to offer Island images in a searchable menu of artwork that can then be printed on paper or canvas. Printscapes handles all styles of art, but specializes in Pacific Rim styles. Seiden has been collecting Hawaiian and Asian vintage imagery for the past 24 years and owns a considerable archive. The range is from book illustrations to botanical drawings, from black-and-white scenic photos to Asian lithographs, from postcard art to sheet music and travel ads. Go to www.Printscapes.com, and click on vintage art.
